This yearbook is but a symbol of the beginning and the end of many experiences for the students of Meadowdale High School.

In September, the doors of M. H. S. opened a new world for the class of 1970. This, the 1967 Lion's Pride records the memories of the freshman class. These are the first memories of the class of 1970. There are many more to come.

Now it is May, and the doors of M. H. S. will close forever on the class of 1967. The Lion's Pride will keep alive for us the memories of our senior year and our four years at Meadowdale. As a class we will no longer exist but as individuals we will leave M. H. S. richer in experiences for the years we attended Meadowdale.

Class History

The Class of Sixty Seven will soon be graduating, each going their own separate way. But the memories of these last four years will never fade away from each of our hearts.

Taking our first big step was the most confusing. We couldn't understand why the upperclassmen were trying to sell us elevator tickets and swimming pool passes when we knew that there was neither. The class officer's were: Bob Paine, Pres.; Candy Clemmer, Vice Pres.: Chris Weaver, Sec.; Andi Wiltheiss, Treas; Joyce Borkenhagen, Hist.; Gary Wiser, Sgt-at-arms. Our class advisor was Mr. Bigony. With the help of other class members the officers presented our freshman dance, "Beatle Bounce". The First year was over and we were looking anxiously for the next.

Our sophomore year was the in between stage. We weren't exactly underclassmen nor quite the upperclassmen. Carrying over the same positions, the class officers, with advisor Mrs. Bostick, led us through another year. The cafeteria turned into a lost island in order to set the atmosphere for our sophomore dance "Stranded Surfer". We had now accomplished two years at M. H. S. and the third was rapidly approaching.

"Upperclassmen"! That one word rang in all of our ears as our junior year began. This year was to produce much activity, hard work and growing friendships. The junior class officers were: Charles Cheadle, Pres.; Michael Johnson, Vice Pres.; Debbie Trobridge, Sec.; Jackie Harris, Tres.; Josie Beltz, Hist.; Frank Andrasik, Sgt.-at-Arms. The Class advisor was Mr. Palumbo.

From September to May the juniors were organizing, printing and selling the Lion's Listings. It required a lot of time and patience but the profit made it worth while.

Following the selling of the Lions Listings the class focused their attention to the Junior Class Play "Onions in the Stew". The Juniors had worked very hard and the results proved it. Lead characters were Ron Weaver, Debbie Trobridge, Barb and Sandi Patton. Those who attended will agree that the class play provided a full evening of humorous pleasure.

Then after months of planning and preparation came the night may of us will long remember, our Junior-Senior Prom. With chairmen Sue Martin and Susan Hawkes "Gone With the Wind" was made a success. The Silver arena became a beautifully decorated southern plantation home while the music of Jimmy May's orchestra filled the air.

With the senior's Class Day it was hard to believe that by this time next year it would be our turn.

At last we were the Seniors of Meadowdale. It didn't seem possible. Ready for a challenging year our class officers: Frank Andrasik, Pres.; Charles Cheadle, Vice Pres.; Jo Hoke, Sec.; Mike Shmerler, Treas.; Debbie Trobridge, Historian; George Ander, Sgt.-at-Arms and Advisor, Mr. Anderson set forth to make our senior year the greatest.

Meadowdale's fifth Annual Homecoming was the first social event of that year. Elected by their fellow seniors Skip West and Jo Hoke reigned as King and Queen.

Within a few more weeks the seniors were ready to present the Senior Class Play, "Our Hearts Were Young and Gay". The hard work put out by the cast and the additional class members paid off for it was the biggest turn out M. H. S. had ever had for a senior play. Candy Clemmer and Andrea Wiltheiss played the leading roles.

Toward the holiday season, Student Council under Pres. Robert Lentz sponsored the annual Snow-ball Dance. It was claimed to be one of the most lovely dances that Student Council had ever presented. The Crowning high-lighted the evening with King Bob Paine and Queen Sheila Carty.

After Christmas Vacation it was back to the books until February. At this time "Moonlight and Roses" the Valetine dance, gave us the chance to relax and enjoy oursleves. Reigning over the dance was Sweetheart Queen Sandi Locke.

The next three and a half months went quickly by leaving only a few weeks until we would be leaving Meadowdale, but the excitement of Graduation and other senior activities occupied most of the time. Senior Recognition lead the way with the awarding of "Little Leo's" and Recognition Certificates and could we ever forget Baccalaureate with the beautiful Candle Light Ceremony. Senior Class Day was next in order. In the morning was the assembly and then off that afternoon to the swimming party. Later that evening we arrived at Wamplers for our Class Dinner-Dance, the perfect ending to a great day. Then at last came Commencement, the last time the class of Sixty-Seven would ever be together.

The memories, Friendships and bits of knowledge that we gained here at M.H.S. can not be forgotten but it is up to us now as we go our separate ways to utilize what we have learned.

With this we say "Farewell".

Well at long last after months of hard and tedious work the yearbook is completed. Mary, Susy, and I hope you get as much enjoyment out of the yearbook for all the long hours we spent working over it. We tried to make this edition of the 1967 Lions' Pride the biggest and best yet.

We would like to thank the yearbook staff members among them are; Joyce Borkenhagen, Linda Brooks, Sheila Brown, Anita Wolk, Julie Mermen, Francie Van der Hoven, Dave Feinstein, and the many other student who so generously devoted their valuable time and effort to make this yearbook a success.

Mary and I are glad we have the opportunity to work and help contribute this yearbook to our senior class and the school.

After months of hard work it gives us pleasure to see the fruits of our labor in print.

All we can say is "thanks".
